Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

A total of 2,622,781 persons will be eligible to vote tomorrow, according to Frank Jordan, California Secretary of State. This is a drop of 517,332 from the all time high of last year when 3,140,114 persons were registered. This means that roughly a half million of people have been dropped from the voting rolls under the permanent registration act. Most of these are undoubtedly good people, with homes and jobs and a stake in California's stability and welfare. But it is an even money bet that the Communist party members are registered and voting. Laziness, apathy, are the curse of democracy.

And now Earl Lee Kelly, director of public works, announces that despite the fact that $20,000,000 is available for starting work immediately on the Central Valley's project, the preliminary calling for bids and legal clearance of land titles, etc., will delay dirt flying until next spring. It was ever thus. Our democratic institutions are so unweildy, so bound up in tape that, that the benefits we might derive from immediate action are lost. We do not advocate dictatorships, but we understand perfectly well why some people do.

In the meantime these thousands of men who might be employed in the Central Valleys project, in many instances will be on relief, if not the same men, at least, others that might have stepped into their shoes when the big project started. For some time we have suspected that our Director of Public Works whose smiling visage greets us so frequently in the printed page, is one of those stuffed shirts Opper used depicted astride the shoulders of the shriveled bedraggled taxpayer. He has plenty of authority and plenty of power to get that project going in three months. But $20,000,000 is a huge sum and must be used to build and lubricate a political machine.

Dick Collins, head of the State Board of Equalization which has charge of state liquor regulations and taxes, has decided that local police help in enforcing the liquor laws, can best be dispensed with. We think this may be an improvement over the cooperative method. It has been well known that the police, in large ctiies even when not engaged in collecting a rake-off for special privileges from bootleggers and other law violators, have their favorites in the liquor trade, and help to defeat enforcement. The only question that rises, is whether the Board of Equalization agents, by and large, will prove more honest. One thing certain, the agents themselves will, along with undivided authority, have an undivided responsibility.

A welching insurance company is contesting the suit brought by Mrs. Julia A. del Prado, whose husband was murdered near Sacramento a few weeks ago. Mrs. del Prado contends that murder is an accident, and that the accident insurance policy of $2,500 should be paid. From the point of view of the man and his family, murder is as surely an accident as an automobile accident. Any sudden death or fatal injury due to causes outside the body or will of the deceased is commonly regarded as an accident. The insurance company that seeks to wiggle out of its liability on technicalities, runs the risk of losing far more than it gains.

R. Ray Ingels, new head of the motor vehicles department, like the proverbial new broom is making a clean sweep. For instance state cars, he declares, will no longer be used for joy riding. One of his opening guns, however, sounds a bit unconvincing. He proposes to open war on drunken driving. He states he has no plan in mind but will give the matter study. Any intelligent layman can tell him why drunken and reckless driving is constantly swelling highway death tolls. It is because judges and juries do not impose penalties severe enough to deter even the morons who jeopardize their own and others lives. If all judges would revoke licenses of drunken drivers for life, in addition to other penalties inflicted, we would soon see the highways clear of most of these death-head menaces.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ewing of this city are spending this week with Mrs. Ewing's daughter in Modesto.

FOURTH CHIEF OF POLICE KILLED IN THIRTY DAYS

Sheriff Carl Tobiassen and his deputies were busy yesterday morning responding to a call from Sacramento to be on the lookout for the men, believed to have murdered Chief of Police Erskine Fish of North Sacramento, near the Woodlake district, adjoining that city.

Alfred Paine and Hugh F. Smith were taken into custody at a Sacramento railway station last evening by Deputy Sheriff Harry C. Bryant of Sacramento. They made no resistance.

Before their arrest, however, Sheriff Tobiassen and Deputy Sheriff Wood had gone to Alleghany to watch the roads there in company with Sheriff Johnson of Sierra county. It was expected that the men would head for the mountains and they were known to be miners.

Prior to the arrest of Paine and Smith, George O. Wallace had been arrested, making three in all, who shot it out with Chief Fish when he sought to question the three.

Fish is the fourth chief of police on the Pacific coast to have been killed in the last thirty days.

Beside Chief Fish and Chief Daw, Chief Charles O'Neal of Santa Rosa was slain three weeks ago by an eccentric. At Puyallup, Wash., Chief Frank Chadwick and Patrolman H. W. Stores were killed by a fleeing bank bandit. Robert Miller, involved in the killing of Chief Daw, is still a fugitive.

Mere poolroom habitues were the three arrested, who traveled all the way on the road of crime, curbstone badmen with a few trifling offenses charged against the names of two. Housebreaking, burglary, threat against the lives of citizens and murder is the downhill story of their few hours Saturday night.

They hatched their prospecting scheme in an Oakland poolhall, determined to steal their way to Alleghany, Sierra county. They drove to Sacramento and entered a grocery store on Del Paso boulevard, filling the back of the automobile with supplies.

GIRL HEARS SHOT

Miss Houlene Town, 17, of North Sacramento, saw them and sometime afterward she heard a shot.

The supplies were insufficient, and they started prowling about in the Wood Lake district of the suburb. Wallace cruised in the automobile while Paine and Smith went to the home of M. W. Millert, 1221 Lockbrae road.

Iva Millert, 16, heard them and aroused her father, who rushed from the house awakening R. H. Alexander, a neighbor, while Mrs. Alexander telephoned police. The two men seized one of the intruders, later identified as Smith, and were holding him when Paine dashed around the house and thrust a gun into Mellert's face.

"Let 'im go or I'll blow your brains out," he shouted to Millert, and then fired a shot into the ground. This was apparently the shot Miss Town heard.

The two householders were compelled to release Smith, who fled with Paine down the street, seeking Wallace and the automobile. They could not find him.

Meanwhile Chief Fish arrived in the neighborhood in response to Mrs. Alexander's call. Just what occurred then is not clear, as the officer never regained consciousness.

FOUND BY WATCHMAN

He evidently saw the two about three blocks from Millert's home and stepped from his police car to question them when the shooting started. He had got about 100 feet from his automobile. It was at this spot he was found a few minutes later by Ray Sutton, a night watchman, lying in a pool of blood.

He was rushed to the Sacramento Emergency Hospital, but died in a few minutes from an abdominal wound which severed an artery.

Chief Fish put up a fight for his life. Five bullets were fired from his revolver, and he may have wounded his assailants. Citizens aroused by the crackling of firearms, said they saw the flight of the desperadoes, and one seemed to have been wounded in the leg, the other in the arm.

Lynch talk is rife in Sacramento.

One of These Is a Queen!

Balloting for Queen of the San Juan Fiesta closed Saturday night in all merchandise stores, and will close this evening, in so far as tickets to the Fiesta dances are concerned. Anyone of these young American princesses will give a satisfactory two-day carnival reign. The girls are: top row, left to right: Lois Davis of Forest, Lois Kessler of North San Juan, Dorithy Thomas of Nevada City; lower row, left to right: Irene Browning of French Corral; Adele Cunningham of North San Juan and Beth Young of Nevada City. CHAIN LETTER WRITER GETS CHINESE DIME

CAMPTONVILLE, Aug. 12.—Of the many Camptonville people who responded to a large number of chain letters during the chain letter rage a few months ago, only one profited by his investment. David Lewis, of this place, invested 10 cents in answering one chain letter, and has received several dimes from all over the country in response thereto. He received ten letters in one day, and even received a Chinese dime mailed from the Chinese colony in San Francisco. Dave is a Welchman and don't know just where he will spend the Chinese ten cent piece.

The chain letter fad is over, but mail time is a happy time for Dave, and a letter in the mail means a fresh cigar for the afternoon smoke, and behind his broad smile is the thought that there was something to live for after all.

YELLOW STAR THISTLE FOUND IN NEVADA CITY

County Horticultural Commissioner L. G. Lageson has found a patch of the dreaded yellow star thistle growing not far from the corners of Clark and Pine streets in Nevada City. On Thursday he oiled and burned the patch and will watch it carefully to see that it does not spread.

This thistle was brought into the Sacramento Valley a few years ago and has spread until it has become a serious problem. It is being fought in several counties. The thistle spoils pasture lands for livestock grazing, tangles grain for harvesting, chokes out alfalfa, and its long stickers are painful when struck by humans.

NEW RESIDENTS BUILD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCutcheon of Lower Lake, Lake County, came to Nevada City a short time ago and were so pleased with this section that they purchased an acre of ground from Jack Campbell on Piety Hill. Lumber has been purchased and is on the ground for a new home.

BIRTH

BORN: At Nevada City, California, August 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moody, a son, Richard William, weight 9 pounds.

Scout Jamboree Is Abandoned, But Boys Will Enjoy U.S. Tour

Local scout officials were in receipt of a circular letter Sunday stating that a tour of the United States had been planned for the Boy Scouts to take the place of the cancelled encampment at Washington, D. C. Sam Partridge of Grass Valley, one of the adults to make the trip with the scouts stated that the boys still desiring to go were almost 100 per cent.

The Tahoe Area Scouts will be practically intact. It was learned a few of the boys had already taken their departure to spend vacations elsewhere, but these boys may be recalled.

The trip will not cost more money but the Scouts will see many more cities, and not go into the infantile paralysis infested area. There was a suggestion that the trip be made to Honolulu, but widespread dissent arose over so much money being spent so far from home. When they return these 30,000 Scouts will know much of their own country.

The boys leaving Nevada City are Albert Pratti, Dick Marriott and Ray Wilde. They are to leave Nevada City tomorrow at 2:30 and leave Auburn at 7:30 in the evening, giving all relatives and friends, that wish it a chance to see them off.

When interviewed Dr. C. W. Chapman, prominent Boy Scout official of this city, stated that he was confident from the first that a simple solution would be found. He commented that if one went fishing in the mountains and discovered he had pitched his tent near a hornet's nest he would not break camp and go home. He would simply shift to another location. The doctor added that it was unthinkable to abandon utterly such a wonderful undertaking to build and inspire character and citizenship in times when it was so much needed.

Elza Kilroy, who has headed the undertaking to raise the funds, stated that whatever doubt there might be, public approval of the venture had disappeared completely when over two hundred of the entrance fees at the Armory Hall card party were paid at the door by people who had not been personally solicited. He said: "Surely we will go ahead and complete the fund. The quilt will be raffled as planned, many of the tickets are already sold, and one of those popular food sales is under way."

Bank Teller Will Count Vote for San Juan Fiesta Queen

In the Bank of America tomorrow afternoon two expert tellers will count the 1,300,000 ballots, approximately that have been cast for Queen of the San Juan Fiesta. Partial counts that have been made from time to time, were but snap tallies and do not for a moment, indicate who will be elected in this final count of the thousands of ballots, each one good for thirty votes. In addition to these ballots, sales of tickets to the Fiesta dances carried with them 500 votes each and it is well known that the six candidates sold hundreds of these tickets. All of these also go into the count tomorrow afternoon in the Bank of America, which owing to the election holiday, will open only for this ballot counting.

Donors who have given cash toward the erection of the San Juan Ridge community house erected at North San Juan are as follows: Nevada County Board of Supervisors, W. E. Moulton of French Corral and North San Juan, Western States Grocery company, Buffalo Brewing company, Mebins & Drescher Inc., Mike Danek of North San Juan, Kirk, Geary & McKesson, Lewis Woods of North San Juan, Mrs. J. S. Bradbury of North San Juan, Willow Springs service station, Kern Fogarty, North San Juan, anonymous of Sacramento, anonymous of Nevada City, Sheriff Carl Tobiassen, Recorder S. J. Clark, Assessor John M. Hammill, Under Sheriff Carl Larsen, Treasurer Steel, District Attorney Vernon Stoll, Superintendent of Schools Mrs. Ella Austin, Butter Crust Bread Co., of Sacramento, My Place, Nevada City, Philip Fodrini, Triangle Produce Co., of Sacramento, Sunny South Wines Co., Yuba-South Poultry Co., of Marysville, Globe Milling Co., of Sacramento, A. Hartung of Nevada City.

The committee desires to thank all donors of cash and prizes and announces that there are several other donors of San Francisco and Sacramento who have signified their desire to contribute, but whose donations are not yet tabulated.

Among the oustanding gifts for the queen and her ladies in waiting is numbered that of the Nevada City Drug Store which is giving the girl elected queen, a Yardley cosmetic set valued at $15 and each girl in the contest a portrait in a gold frame valued at $7.50 each.

Ted Jannis of Nevada City has donated the use of his open car for conveying Lieutenant Governor Hatfield on a tour of the San Juan Ridge, his birthplace.

Among the notables to sit on the platform while Lieutenant Governor Hatfield makes his address at North San Juan will be Mrs. Anna Marie Smith, born Annie Marie Gilbert at Birgen on the Rhine in 1845. Mrs. Smith was brought to California when young child, sailing on a windjammer from Germany. On the voyage over nearly all the passengers died of cholera, including seven members of her family and her father and mother. She was adopted by a family from Missouri. She was a sister of the late Jacob Gilbert who conducted a saddlery at North San Juan for many years. Mrs. Smith studied medicine, obtained a doctor's degree, speaks seven languages and does marvelous needlework. Some of this work she will have on display at North San Juan. She won first prize for a handsome bed spread at the Columbia Exposition in Chicago in 1893. When seventeen years old a famous artist painted her portrait and this picture will also be on display during the Fiesta. This venerable pioneer still retains all her factulties and attends regularly to all her everyday housewifely duties. She will be given an opportunity to tell her early day memories of North San Juan.

One of the pioneer sports of early times was catching a greased pig. An unusually agile pig has been brought in from the woods and is now being groomed for an exciting day at North San Juan. The committee is experimenting with different kinds of grease for this animal and at the moment, printers ink is leading as the favorite unguent.

Amateur vaudevillians are beseiging Christian Andersen with applications to participate in the amateur hour which is expected to add to the general gaiety of the celebration next Saturday and Sunday.

Here is a brief resume of the program for the two day fiesta:

Dedication of the new hall, dedicatory speech by Superior Judge J. A. McMahon of Sierra county. Games and other amusements. Vaudeville until seven-thirty. The vaudeville will have many novel and interesting numbers as well as the sketch "The Daughter of Bachus".

A Hopi Indian snake dance by Wyoming Tribe Redmen of Nevada City with real live snakes, then the crowning of the queen of the fiesta which will be a ceremony of impressive beauty and interest.

Then the big all night dance with the scintilating music of Charlie Babbs Special Fiesta orchestra under the baton of the maestro himself. Ned Denis with his orchestra, also will furnish music for the dance and Ned will strut his stuff in no uncertain way.

Sunday, August 18, will feature a baseball game between the Grass Valley Miners and the San Juan team of ball tossers. These two teams hold an enviable record and betting was high with San Juan on the short end at first. But as the dopesters begin to compare records of the two teams the odds have dropped and it is even money.

At about one o'clock the reception to Lieutenant Governor Hatfield and the dinner in his honor attended by many of the prominent people of the surrounding counties and towns. Lieutenant Governor Hatfield's address at three o'clock.

The amateur radio hour will offer some cash prizes, with the opportunity to appear in the Nevada City theatre on August 24 and the Strand at Grass Valley on August 25, under contract with these two showhouses. This will be considered a professional appearance and a long way up the ladder of success. This feature program is expected to take about an hour and a half. At nine o'clock to the lilting strains of an eight piece band composed of the best available musicians will begin.

Interspersed with the dancing will be a floor show, and there are singers to appear simultaneously with the dancing.

San Juan will be host to the world and she knows she is on the spot. Every feature of the two day carnival will be of big time calibre.

Messrs. Trubschenk and Miller stated that there will be every facility to take care of the crowds who are coming.

NEWLY WEDS TO RESIDE AT MONTEZUMA HILL

Virgil Church of Montezuma Hill and Dorothy Hastings of San Francisco were married by Judge Wood of North San Juan on Friday, August 2. This is the first marriage ceremony Judge Wood has performed since taking office.

Attending the bride was Adelaide Reilly of Montezuma Hill.

Chairman Harvey Trubeschenk, of the San Juan Fiesta Committee, acted as best man. The young couple will reside at Montezuma Hill where the groom is employed.

Homespun Philosophy

(Contributed)

Every community has its porch-sitting philosopher, usually a stooped old man with wrinkled face and whitish hair, who lolls about in the sun, whittling, perhaps, or smoking a corn-cob pipe.

Kindly, he is nevertheless quick to perceive the shortcomings of humanity, and for most of these he has tolerance. Only the stupidest of man's stupidities arouse him to his most blistering indictment, which is,

"That feller ought to have his head examined."

When he sees a maniacal driver tearing down the street at breakneck speed he usually says, "That feller ought to have his head examined."

And so he ought.

And so he will, from now on, in California. Assembly bill 1657, passed quietly by the legislature and signed recently by the governor, permits the state to examine thoroughly the mental capacity of applicants for drivers' licenses.

The average person applying will not, of course, be bothered with the mental test. It will be confined to those about whom there is some hint of abnormality.

There is no question but that a number of drivers are mentally deficient. Some of the worst offenders must be. And it is only common sense on the part of California to "examine their heads," as the old philosopher would have it, and to prevent their being set loose upon the public.

The highway is no place for a maniac.

HOMETTES

There's a green and pleasant valley
With a river wimpling through,
And the sentry mountains lifting
Jeweled crowns into the blue;
And it's there I love to linger
In the shade of tree and vine,
Where the poppies nod a greeting
To a little home o' mine.

He sought for just one matchless word
With which to stir the hearts of men,
And waiting, heard the nesting song
Of joyous birds in field and glen;
And soon in glad accord, he smiled,
For there beneath the sky's blue dome,
He heard the voice of Nature say,
"The word you seek is—home."

The seasons wave their potent wands
Above each tree and painted flower;
And then in passing leave behind
Rare tokens of their grace and power;
But never are these sprites so gay,
By rushing stream or flying foam,
As when they find some task to do
Around a little spot called—home.

—A. MERRIAM CONNER.

1000 ATTEND V. F. W. FIRST ANNUAL CARNIVAL

Banner Mountain Post, V. F. W., of Nevada City with the assistance of the district posts held their first annual carnival, which was a decided success, in Red Men's Grove yesterday. An attendance of fully 1,000 persons for the day enjoyed the affairs which held the interest of the crowd the whole time. The carnival was in honor of the third anniversary of the posts founding.

Prominent members present from other districts and posts were. Capt. F. K. Williams, Council Administrator of the 7th District, Roseville, Paul West, Council Administrator of the 8th District, Oroville; Fred Brooks, District No. 7 Patriotic Instructor; Alex Mahr, Department Sr. Vice Commander of Disabled American Veterans; Thirteen posts were represented, members coming from Redding, Red Bluff, Orland, Oroville, Gridley, Marysville, Roseville, Auburn, two posts of Sacramento, Emeryville, No. 1010, and Los Angeles.

A barbecue dinner was served at noon after which a full afternoon program of sports were held. There was wrestling, boxing, a colored professional entertainer, tap dancing, etc.

Commander C. E. Bosworth, Major Leroy Delaney, Louie Pinelli, Earl Raymond, William Mitchell, John Figurski, Max Weiss, Ed Rose, Capt. Frank Williams, and many others worked zealously to make the carnival the success it was.

Mrs. Louie Pura of Gonzales won the fine radio. Mr. Pura assisted with the barbecue. Mrs. Pura and son drove all night to be present.

In figuring up the money taken in at the Carnival for tickets, on the dance, concessions, barbecue, etc., it was estimated the post cleared about $100, after all debts had been paid. This money is to be used for relief work.

QUEEN BALLOT DEMAND SURPRISED EVERYBODY

J. C. Penney Co. and other Grass Valley stores ran short of San Juan Fiesta queen ballots for a brief period Saturday afternoon and some of their patrons expressed great indignation. This is to offer the apologies of the committee in charge, which was hard put to it on that afternoon to keep all stores which handled these ballots, supplied. The fault was not with either the stores or the committee. It was the unprecedentedly large demand which exhausted piles of ballots faster than they could be replenished.

INJURY TO OLD TIME RESIDENT

Mr. Sherman Marsh an old time and well known resident of this city fell and hit a piece of glass which nearly severed his right thumb from his hand. Dr. A. H. Tickell took care of the injury. It is hoped that Mr. Marsh, familiarly known as "Sherm" Marsh will soon recover from his injury.

A. M. TOM
HERB SPECIALIST
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
For years I was a sufferer from constipation. My blood was out of order and my kidneys and bladder bothered me terribly causing dreadful back-aches. On top of all this I had female trouble.
I tried several doctors but none helped me. One recommended an operation which I dreaded as a previous operation did not help me.
One day my husband noticed A. M. Tom's advertisement and suggested that I visit him. Having taken Herb treatments for five weeks, I am well again, and able to go back to work.
I cannot praise A. M. Tom too highly and if you are suffering I honestly recommend you to see him as I know what he has done for me, he can do for others.
